

“JK Science - A Decade of Medical Journalism” Journey of Achievements with a March of Success

Annil Mahajan, Sudhaa Sharma

Editors In General

Inspiration of this journal came way back in 1999 with a mission of updating medical fraternity with the latest knowledge so that the best possible treatment is provided to suffering humanity.

The humble efforts in marching with a success in its 11th year with a lot of achievements in the past one decade. This has been possible because of joint efforts of those entire associated in Editorial, Advisory Board and with increasing participation of eminent authors all across globe.

We are extremely grateful to all our sponsors. Readers deserve equal appreciation for their enthusiastic response and making JK Science a popular tool of medical journalism.

We once again express our heart full gratitude to one and all for their constant contributions, support and constructive criticism for the achievements of this prestigious journal.

With a promise and commitment of persistent effort to take this journal to greater heights, we shall always have to remain in touch with you and welcome any supportive and promotive communication.

We wish you a very Happy, Healthy and prosperous New year

---